Joelle started fencing when she was 11 years old at the Olympia Club in Montreal. She studies Pure Sciences at CEGEP Edouard MonPetit and is aiming for a career in aerospace engineering. Her long-term goal in fencing is to compete in the Olympics. Joelle trains six to ten times a week, and pushes herself as hard as she can. Her favourite fencing memory is climbing onto the podium for the first time. Her coach Stephane has had the most influence on her fencing career and both her parents, who also participate in sports, are strong supporters of her fencing efforts. Joelle has won diverse awards such as the Certificate of Great Distinction in the Gauss mathematics competition in 2006, and the 2009-2010 women's sabre junior circuit trophy for Québec. When not training hard for fencing, Joelle enjoys kayaking on the Bonaventure River in Gaspé, family dinners at home, and listening to the radio.
